

Makena Coffman is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Urban & Regional Planning at the University of Hawaii at Manoa. She holds a BA in International Relations from Stanford University and a PhD in Economics from the University of Hawaii.

Makena's teaching interest is in environmental planning related to climate change, energy policy, and environmental valuation. Her research interest is in policy solutions to environmental externalities - particularly related to climate change mitigation and adaptation for islands.

Makena is the Vice Chair of the Manoa Climate Change Commission; member of the State Greenhouse Gas Emissions Reduction Task Force and Chair of the Analysis Committee; and a founding board member of Kanu Hawaii.